Free Public Library

WARREN ILLINOIS.

Established in 1897

By the Township of Warren, under Act of the General Assembly of Illinois, Approved March 7, 1872, to authorize Cities, Incorporated Towns and Townships to establish and maintain Free Public Libraries and Reading-Rooms.

Section Six of the Act says: "Every library and reading-room established under this Act shall be forever free to the use of the inhabitants of the city where located, always subject to such reasonable rules and regulations as the library board may adopt in order to render the use of said library and reading-room of the greatest benefit to the greatest number; and said board may exclude from the use of said library and reading-room any and all persons who shall willfully violate such rules."

Opened June 1, 1886.

Rules and Regulations.

I. The Library shall be open on Tuesdays and Saturdays of each week (except legal holidays) from 1 o'clock p. m. to 9 p. m.

II. Every inhabitant of the town of Warren over sixteen years of age shall be entitled to the use of the library, in accordance with the Regulations. Persons under that age may be admitted upon guaranty, after subscribing a promise to obey the Rules, or in any other way that may be satisfactory to the Librarian.

III. Non-residents of the Township of Warren residing within five miles of the village of Warren may be entitled to the use of the library upon application in writing, properly recommended, and upon payment of one dollar per annum, by vote of the Directors.

IV. No periodical or book of reference shall be taken from the library.

V. No person shall be allowed more than one volume at the same time.

VI. No book taken from the library shall be retained more than seven days, nor loaned to any one not a member of the same household, provided always, that the same book may be renewed once to the same person, except books designated by the President of the Board.

VII. All books shall be returned within seven days from the date of delivery, under penalty of a fine of two cents per day for all delay.

VIII. All injuries to books beyond reasonable wear, and all losses of books, shall be made good to the satisfaction of the Librarian.

IX. No person shall be allowed to take a book from the library, who is owing anything by reason of injuries to, or for losses of books, or fine for delay in returning a book; nor will any book be acknowledged returned unless delivered to the Librarian.

X. It shall be the duty of the Librarian to collect all fines arising from delay in the return of books.

XI. All persons visiting the library shall be required to demean themselves quietly, and any person abusing the privileges of the library by loud talking, or other offensive conduct, shall be denied admission to the library room.

XII. The Librarian shall admit no one to the privileges of the library unless fully satisfied of his right thereto, and may require any person to bring a voucher from the Committee on Administration.

XIII. No person except the Librarian shall take books from the shelves.

XIV. The Public School and Academy shall be permitted to take out such books as may be needed for their work, but to be returned within two weeks.

Fiction and Juvenile.

EXPLANATORY.

In this Catalogue the works of Fiction have been arranged in alphabetical order, and also under the authors' names, which appear in alphabetical order; hence each book appears twice. The works other than Fiction appear under their classification.

Each book bears a number, letter and number, the last two indicating the shelf where the book may be found. In asking for books, patrons should give number and shelf.
